Today —

► Mindful Movement for Mental Health - Intergenerational class begins today with coffee at 8:45, class at 9 am. Learn to be fully present in God's presence by experiencing mindfulness (mindful awareness) through the five senses of taste, touch, smell, sound and sight. Each week we will look at one of the senses and how we connect to God and our emotions in a balanced way. We will enter into the mindfulness time each week beginning with breathing, gentle movements, balancing and prayer. We will end each week with a prayer and an activity to complete individually or as a family. This is suited to everyone ages 8-108 (or maturity level that can participate in these types of activities.) We will have classes on October 21, 28, November 4, 18 & 25. Let Lindsey Ecker know if you have questions or would like to participate so she knows how many materials to bring each week.

◆ School for Laypeople: Doing Spiritual Care

How can people in our church provide quality spiritual care and support for each other, when we aren't all trained to be pastors? This workshop, on Saturday, November 3 at NLUMC, 9 am - 4 pm, will include interactive teaching, tools for spiritual formation, and resources to help us provide meaningful spiritual care for one another... no theology degree required! Register online at uwaterloo.ca/anabaptist-learning-workshop/school-laypeople-doing-spiritual-care-november-3-2018 or contact Pastor Alicia. Cost is $40, bursaries are available.

Following the meal you are invited to stay and join the visioning and pastoral review focus groups. (see next item)

◆ Visioning and Pastoral Review Focus Groups

All are invited to join us on Sunday, November 11 to add your voice to this important conversation. After worship we'll share a potluck lunch and then have an opportunity for you to provide feedback on the direction of our church. After a break, you will be invited to share your experiences of Pastor Alicia's ministry to contribute to her review. In preparation for the day, please review the material shared in mailboxes earlier in September. Please let Maida Tiessen or Joanne Brown know of your interest in participating in the afternoon sessions so that they know how many focus groups to prepare.

◆ Theatre of the Beat is a Canadian touring theatre company commissioned by Mennonite Church Eastern Canada to create this play and take on tour to Mennonite churches! The play, #ChurchToo, will take place Tuesday, November 13 at 7 pm at NLUMC. Admission: freewill offering. Artfully depicted through a variety of scenes and relationships, #ChurchToo explores the struggle of wading into the realities of sexual assault and examines the difficulties of speaking out in a community where the topic of sex is often considered taboo. The play will be followed by a half hour of question and answer led by Theatre of the Beat. These social justice issues and how they intersect with our lives and our beliefs are very important conversations to have in safe surroundings. We invite everyone to mark their calendar now to attend on November 13 and to invite others from our community.

◆ Kindred Members Support NLUMC. Thanks to your investments in Kindred Credit Union's Church Builder GICs last year, we received a donation of $682.19. Since Church Builder GICs were introduced in 1998, Kindred has donated over $675,000 in bonus interest to churches and organizations in Ontario.
